Outreach in Community Mental Health Care

A Manual for Practitioners

Second Edition

By Tom Burns and Mike Firn

New to this Edition:

- Fully updated to reflect the significant shifts in mental health care organizations— keeping you abreast of all the latest developments
- A trustworthy companion for all members of assertive outreach teams, offering discussions on key topics that arise within the community mental health care context
- Reflects policy changes in the UK

Outreach in Community Mental Health Care: A Manual for Practitioners has been fully updated since the last edition, providing readers with an in-depth, practical guide to mental health care in the community setting today. It addresses the significant changes in mental health service organizations over the years, including the various new teams devised and the importance of central planning and targets.

The authors Tom Burns and Mike Firn are pioneers in this field of research and are active in community outreach as practitioners, researchers, and supervisors. In 29 chapters they cover key discussions in conceptual issues, health and social care practice, management and development, which provides readers with an insight into the reality of community outreach work.
